Presented by Revered Bhupendrabhai Pandya

This event is being organised by Samakti Youth Mission

About the event

This unique weekend seminar offers practical tools and techniques to effectively deal with the challenges of modern living.

This seminar will be presented by one of the greatest Eastern philosophers of the modern age, the highly revered Bhupendrabhai Pandya, and promises to be a life-affirming journey for all those who attend.

It will cover the following topics: The secret to long lasting relationships, a better understanding of one's duties and responsibilities, how to better manage your emotions and adopting a more positive attitude to life and the situations that arise within it.

Tickets & information

Entry to this event is exclusive to ticket holders. Tickets can be purchased online and are priced from £10. There is limited availability, so book early to avoid disappointment.
